

HIGHLANDS RANCH MANSION VISITOR'S GUIDE

welcome

The Highlands Ranch Mansion serves as the 21st-century gateway to the history of the home and the community of Highlands Ranch, with multiple components that transform the visitor's experience presenting fresh perspectives on Highlands Ranch and the enduring significance of Mansion Owner's lives. When visiting the Highlands Ranch Mansion you can tour the hilltop home that was owned by various prominent Coloradans, enjoy the beauty of its grounds and sweeping vistas, and explore the history of Highlands Ranch.

Tour

A guided tour of the Highlands Ranch Mansion provides an intimate look at the extraordinary home established Highlands Ranch. See the architecture, furnishings, and other decor that reveal the various owners unique personalities. Our basic guided house tour includes the rooms on the Mansion's first floor and lasts about 35 minutes. The second floor rooms are included with our extended tour and last about 1 hour.

You are also welcome to take a self-guided tour. Follow the Tour Stop Boards in each room, starting in the Foyer. A map of the building and each tour stop location is available at the Mansion. Additional historic details, stories, and much more can be found on our interactive touch-screen signs and on our website.

Group Tour reservations can be made for groups of 10 or more, and for youth/student groups. Please call 303-791-0177 for more information and to make reservations.
