New website launched, new logo revealed for Highlands Ranch Mansion & Historic Park

The Highlands Ranch Metro District has launched a new website for the Highlands Ranch Mansion & Historic Park. The site, which features more detailed rental resource information about the history of this 127-year-old historic icon, has been enhanced with a more user-friendly format, photo galleries, and an improved event calendar.

“The new Mansion & Historic Park website offers great information about the historic Mansion and surrounding park,” said Harlan Stritchko, mansion manager. “Whether you’re interested in renting the Mansion for a private or corporate event, visiting us, learning more about local history through a tour, or volunteering as a docent, there is a gold mine of information on the new website.”

The new website also features a new Mansion & Historic Park logo and color palette, designed to incorporate both the Mansion, and the Historic Park into the future as it evolves.

For information about how and when to visit the Mansion, to learn more about hosting a private event there, or to volunteer, please visit highlandsranchmansion.com or call 303-791-0177.
